

Am I A Good Candidate For The Option? A Self-Assessment

Please rate your comfort level with the following activities:

4 – Very comfortable and/or have done this extensively in the past and/or am doing this on a regular basis right now,

3 – Comfortable and/or have some experience with this,

2 – Believe that I would be comfortable doing this but have never tried,

1 – Usually uncomfortable in this area and/or no interest and/or no experience.

1. Trying out new instructional ideas. _____
2. Reading Kentucky Teacher and professional magazines to find out what other schools are doing to improve learning. _____
3. Designing new learning activities for my children. _____
4. Implementing a long-term action plan to improve student learning, i.e., consolidated planning, state leadership team, etc. _____
5. Changing instruction to meet the needs of my children. _____
6. Working on an independent college course. _____
7. Putting together a large professional portfolio. _____
8. Assembling artifacts that demonstrate teacher standards. _____
9. Establishing professional contacts with people outside my building. _____
10. Searching for knowledge on my own. _____
11. Setting standards-based instructional goals for my children. _____
12. Planning and implementing a school-wide initiative. _____
13. Analyzing student work for improvement. _____
14. Collecting student data to quantify learning gains. _____
15. Sharing knowledge with other teachers outside of my building and my district. _____
16. Accepting or receiving criticism of my work from fellow teachers. _____